

Targeted Earlier Intervention Program Reform

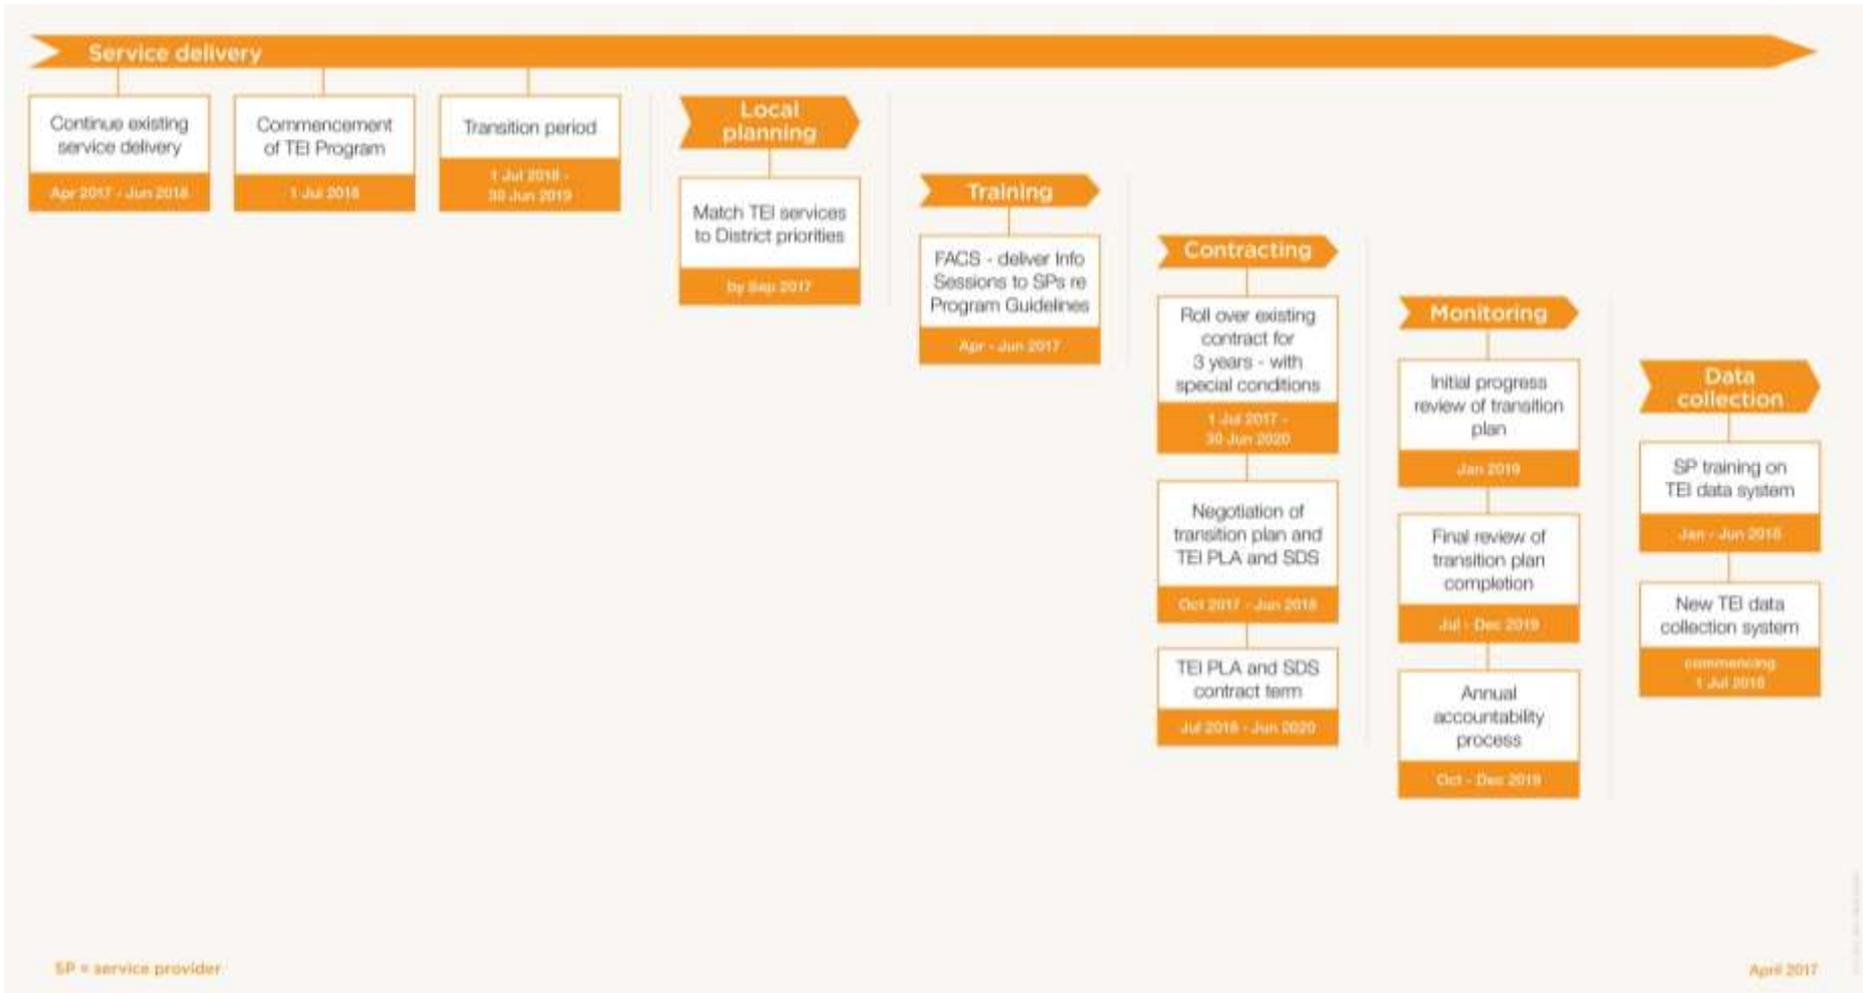

Local and client centred

November 2017

Vision for TEI program reform

- Families, children and young people's needs are met earlier to prevent the escalation of need.
- Families are able to access support earlier in the lives of their children and young people, and are empowered to live independent meaningful lives.
- Risk factors that lead to child abuse and neglect and domestic family violence are addressed earlier.
- Aboriginal children, young people and families have access to effective and culturally safe support and services.

Sector Assistance Strategy

- The TEI Sector Assistance Strategy aims to support existing TEI funded services to effectively and confidently transition to the new TEI program. The Strategy will deliver assistance in two stages.
- The Strategy has two stages:
  - Stage One (1 July 2017 – 30 June 2018) will assist services transition through the TEI commissioning process and through activities like: local planning; contracting; transition planning and implementation; establishing the new data collection; and implementing new reporting systems and performance measures.
  - Stage Two (1 July 2018 – 30 June 2020) will support further activities within the reform implementation, such as: improving cultural capabilities; building the TEI service delivery evidence base; enhancing local planning processes; working with the sector to embed evidence-informed practice within the program; common systems and processes; sector-wide training needs; and developing sector capability.

Sector Assistance Strategy

- Stage One assistance measures are classified into five focus areas:
  - Information on TEI commissioning
  - Strengthening local practice
  - Workforce and skills development
  - Organisational development
  - Aboriginal sector capacity building.
